I agree with you

One the one hand, it's a good thing to have people you trust to do the work On the other, its not ok for them not to be paid

Ok. They paid Damion the contractor today. But this guy Addie has also been waiting for 3 months now. He keeps calling me asking to get paid. I just got off the phone with his wife. Yes, she just called me to ask where the $ is. I think for future state dept projects here in Chappaqua I will just tell them to get their own contractors. This is embarrassing!
